

HOUSE RESOLUTION 25

By Watson

A RESOLUTION to congratulate Jaclyn Roe upon being named
Miss Foothills Country Fair 2004.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly are pleased to specially recognize those outstanding young people of this State who bring beauty, grace, and purpose to all their endeavors; and

WHEREAS, one such superlative young woman is Jaclyn Roe of Cleveland, who was crowned Miss Foothills Country Fair 2004; and

WHEREAS, contestants for Miss Foothills Country Fair are judged on their beauty, poise, and personality, as well as a personal interview; and

WHEREAS, Miss Roe also beguiled the audience with her baton-twirling artistry; and

WHEREAS, considering her title an optimal opportunity to be a role model, Miss Roe chose Dyslexia Awareness as her platform; having this learning disability herself, she plans to use her own experience to touch the lives of young people also affected by this disorder; and

WHEREAS, Miss Roe's ambition, determination, and accomplishments are a source of pride for her family, her school, and her community, and most certainly bode well for her future success; she is thankful for her pageant experience and for all that she has learned during her competition; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we pause in our deliberations to specially recognize and honor one of Tennessee's most promising young citizens; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we congratulate Jaclyn Roe upon being named Miss Foothills Country Fair 2004 and extend to her our best wishes for every success in all her future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
